

As a traveler, I urge you to reject cell phone use on airplanes. It is bad enough that we have to hear everyone talk before and upon landing. No one is so indispensable that they cannot talk on the phone for the duration of a flight.